

Call for Nominations and Applications for Cuban Fellows for the James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation
2024 Summer Institute on the Constitution

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation is pleased to offer this call for nominations for, and applications from, qualified Cuban fellows for the 2024 Summer Institute on the Constitution of the James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation in Washington, D.C.

The Summer Institute on the Constitution:

The core of the Summer Institute is a graduate-level course entitled "The Foundations of American Constitutionalism." Taught by constitutional scholars, it examines the principles, framing, ratification, and implementation of constitutional government in the United States. This is an intense course of study and fellows are required to live on campus and attend classes. A feature of the Institute is the scheduling of trips to sites in and around Washington that are associated with the Constitution. The 2024 Summer Institute on the Constitution will run from June 15 to July 12, 2024. Fellows will receive round-trip international or domestic transportation to Washington, D.C., room, board, and a stipend of $2,500.

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation:

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation was established by the United States Congress in 1986 for the purpose of improving teaching about the United States Constitution in secondary schools. While funding for the Foundation's general programs comes from Congress and generous contributions from individuals, foundations and corporations, the Cuban Fellowship program is not government funded. The James Madison Fellowships were created to honor Madison's legacy and Madisonian principles by providing support for graduate-level study that focuses on the United States Constitution -- its history and contemporary relevance to the practices and policies of democratic government.

Qualifications for Nomination/Application:

Nominations and applications for the will be accepted from individuals who:

- Are Cuban born, or first generation born outside of Cuba.
- Have demonstrated leadership capacity, or show clear potential for the same.
- Are in a position to disseminate and otherwise promote the diffusion of the knowledge and competencies gained from the Summer Institute to a wider community of individuals. The candidate should indicate his or her abilities and plans in this regard in the application.

- Have demonstrated proficiency in the English language that will allow them to successfully complete and benefit from the Summer Institute.
- Have university level education or other experience that will enable them to successfully complete a graduate level course of study in the United States.
- Are fully vaccinated against Covid-19.
- Preference is given to qualified applicants who hold a valid, appropriate, visa and necessary travel documents such as a passport for direct entry into the United States from Cuba, or do not require these documents due to U.S. residency or citizenship status.

Application Process:

Applicants must submit a cover letter in English indicating their qualifications, experience and interests specifically related to the selection criteria above. In addition, applicants must also submit a current curriculum vitae, also in English, with the names, addresses, fax number and email of three references, and a copy of their valid passport, and if available, their visa, if required for entry into the U.S.

All inquiries, applications and correspondence regarding the Cuban component of this program should be directed to the Cuban Fellowship Selection Committee at cubanfellowship@yahoo.com.

The deadline for receipt of completed applications is Friday, March 8, 2024.

Notification:

Nominees will be notified of the outcome of the selection process by Tuesday, April 2, 2024.