Manuscript submission guidelines

The primary form of submission is a Word document via e-mail to lap@ucr.edu with the subject line "Author Name - manuscript submission." Manuscripts should be no longer than 8,000 words, double-spaced, in English, Spanish, Portuguese, or French. LAP translates accepted non-English manuscripts. Include a cover sheet with the author’s name, contact information, affiliations, an abstract of 150 words, and five keywords.

Please see www.latinamericanperspectives.com for Style Guidelines (under the Submit to LAP tab where current calls for manuscripts, additional submission information, and description of the internal review process are also available). Manuscripts should be original work not previously published in English in the same or similar form. Submission of a manuscript implies commitment to publish in the journal. Authors submitting manuscripts to LAP should not simultaneously submit them to another journal. Manuscripts and inquiries may also be sent to the Managing Editor, Latin American Perspectives, P.O. Box 2703, Riverside, CA 92517-2703.

Latin American Perspectives

For over four decades Latin American Perspectives has been the journal to turn to for critical perspectives on the region’s complex socio-economic and political processes. It would be difficult to teach Latin American Studies without it.
