01 / THE ASSOCIATION

About LASA

The Latin American Studies Association (LASA) is the largest professional organization in the world for individuals and institutions engaged in Latin American studies. With more than 12,000 members—over 60% based outside the United States—LASA is a multidisciplinary, multilingual network of scholars, institutions, and cultural practitioners. lasaweb.org

OUR MISSION

LASA's mission is to foster intellectual discussion, research, and teaching on Latin America, the Caribbean, and its people throughout the Americas, promote the interests of its diverse membership, and encourage civic engagement through network building and public debate.

Every year, specialists on Latin America gather at the LASA International Congress. Featuring over 900 sessions, including plenary sessions and informal meetings, the Congress is the world's premier forum for expert discussion on Latin America and the Caribbean.

LASA members enjoy a wide variety of benefits. Membership is available to individuals and institutions sharing the Association's commitment to the field of Latin American studies.

The Association advances the Latin Americanist community in numerous ways. It provides access to the Latin American Research Review, the premier U.S.-based journal in Latin American studies; publishes the LASA Forum, a quarterly magazine; and offers open-access books through LASA Press, its publishing arm. It also promotes the culture, history and arts of Latin America via its cultural center. Additionally, it alerts members to professional opportunities, recognizes scholarly achievements, and represents Latin Americanists' interests and views of Latin Americanists before the U.S. government and, at times, other governments.
